Additional Information

- Dropper included
- The color of hemp extract CBD oil can vary from batch to batch. Charlotte's Web products are not made with any additives or dyes to standardize the color of our products. That said, you're left with only 100% natural CBD oil the way nature intended.
- These extracts contain a unique blend of cannabinoids plus terpenes and flavonoids. Cannabinoids are phyto-compounds that are produced by the hemp plant. One of the most commonly known cannabinoids in hemp is non-psychoactive cannabidiol (CBD). Cannabinoids work with the mammalian Endocannabinoid System (ECS), which is a vast receptor system to support homeostasis and health.*

- All pesticides, mildewcides, and herbicides used on our plants are 100% organic
- Extra Strength CBD Oil was formerly known as Everyday Plus Hemp Extract Oil

Take 1-2 drops daily or add this hemp extract oil to smoothies or coffee in the morning and reap the benefits of one of nature's great wellness supplements. Charlotte's Web Everyday Plus formula has 2x the strength of regular hemp oil with double the phytocannabinoids that may support overall wellness. Mint chocolate flavor.

Ingredients: MCT Fractionated Coconut Oil, Organic Chocolate Mint Flavor Oil (Organic Sunflower Oil, Natural Flavors).
